THE MARK 10 MISSION

GOSPEL

Matthew 25:31-40

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. Then the King will say to those on his right, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me." Then the righteous will answer him, saying, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?" And the King will answer them, "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you did it to me."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

PRIEST | MARTYR

SAINT ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC

FEAST
NOVEMBER 24TH

WHO IS HE?

St Andrew was born in Vietnam. As a boy, he met a Christian teacher who introduced him to Jesus, and Andrew was later baptised. He loved Jesus so much that he became a priest, dedicating his life to sharing the Gospel and helping others discover God's love. At that time, Christians in Vietnam were being persecuted for their faith, but Andrew bravely continued his mission. In 1839, he was arrested and killed because he refused to give up his faith. Today, we remember St Andrew alongside 116 other martyrs, including priests, bishops and ordinary Catholics, who gave their lives for Christ in Vietnam. All were declared saints by St John Paul II.

ST ANDREW PRAYER

Lord Jesus,
St Andrew Dũng-Lạc loved you so much that he remained faithful to you, even when it was difficult and dangerous.
Help us to be brave in our faith, to trust in you when we are afraid and to never be ashamed of loving you.
Through the prayers of St Andrew and his companions, may we grow closer to you each day.
Amen.

SAINT MISSION

Be brave like St Andrew! Look for an opportunity to show someone that you love Jesus. Perhaps you could make the Sign of the Cross before eating, tell a friend something you love about your faith or invite someone to pray with you.
Remember, you don't have to do something extraordinary to be a brave follower of Jesus. Even small acts of faith can be a powerful witness to his love!
